ING Real Estate appoints country manager for Singapore and South East Asia

ING Real Estate's investment management business in Asia today announced the appointment of Mr. Leong Chi Meng as Managing Director and Country Manager for Singapore and South East Asia.

Based in Singapore, Chi Meng also joins the regional management team to support the company's real estate investment management activities in the region. He reports to Richard Price, Regional CEO for Asia.

"We are delighted to welcome a senior professional of Chi Meng's stature and who will provide valuable support for the team on the ground in Singapore. We believe his 18 years experience in the industry and work with both regional and international investors will significantly benefit our business. South East Asia has always been an important region for us, we will be keen to continue to expand our portfolio in the future and look at new market entry opportunities on a selective basis," stated Richard Price.

ING Real Estate currently manages investments in Singapore, Thailand, Malaysia and The Philippines on behalf of a range of funds and separate account clients.
