

Chief Financial Officer

Craig Newell

Mr. Newell joined Summit REIT, the Canadian real estate platform acquired by ING Real Estate, as Vice President Finance in 2000 following seven years in a variety of increasingly senior roles with an international audit and accounting firm. Mr. Newell has been an integral part of Summit becoming one of Canada's largest REIT's and the country's largest industrial landlord with additional holdings in the retail and office real estate sectors. With the acquisition of Summit REIT by ING Real Estate in October 2006, Mr. Newell was appointed Chief Financial Officer, responsible for the Company's financial affairs, reporting and accounting controls, and is involved in formulating the Company's strategic direction.

Mr. Newell is a member of the Real Property Association of Canada (RealPAC), Financial Executives International, and the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Nova Scotia. He has a Bachelor of Commerce degree from Dalhousie University and is a chartered accountant.
